

COOPER HEWITT ACCESSIBILITY

MORNING AT THE MUSEUM

Today I am going to visit Cooper Hewitt, Smithsonian Design Museum located at 2 East 91st Street between Madison and Fifth Avenues.

I will explore lots of different designs.

I will be able to make my own designs, too.

When I arrive at the museum, a security guard may check my bags.

Security is at the museum to make sure I am safe.

The security guard will give me my bag back after he or she looks inside.

I can check my coat while I am at the museum.

I can also keep my coat with me.

When I come inside, I will go up a few stairs to the Great Hall.

I will see Cooper Hewitt staff and check in.

Cooper Hewitt staff will give me instructions for my visit to the museum.

I can take either the stairs or elevator to the Ground Floor (G), 1st, 2nd and 3rd Floor.

I will see objects that are old and new.

If I can interact with the object, I will see a symbol telling me to touch.

If I need to take a break, I can go to the conservatory or ground floor for for a quieter experience.

I can be safe in the museum by:

- Not bringing food or drink into the galleries.
- Using my walking feet.
- Using quiet voices in the galleries.
- Looking with my eyes, not with my hands.
